BUILDING A NATIONAL INSTITUTION FOR AGRICULTURAL MARKETS

National Agri Market Services Ltd. (NAMS) is a newly established 100% Government-Owned Company with a national mandate to transform the management and development of 18 Dedicated Economic Centers (DECs) across Sri Lanka.

NAMS is being established to take these Centers to the next level—creating modern, vibrant and professionally managed trading environments that better serve farmers, traders and consumers, while strengthening efficiency, transparency and public value.

As NAMS enters this important phase of building its organization and establishing strong systems for the future, the Company invites applications from a suitably qualified and experienced professional for the position of:

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

The CEO will provide overall administrative and institutional leadership to NAMS, with responsibility for establishing effective systems, strengthening operational discipline, implementing Board decisions, coordinating with Government institutions and stakeholders, and leading the Company's workforce and operations across the country.

The ideal candidate will be an experienced administrative leader with the ability to build a new institution, translate decisions into action, and lead with professionalism, commitment and a strong sense of national responsibility.
