

Director (part time) - Knowledge and Technology Transfer Office (KTTO)

 webmaster  CareerOpportunities  12 October 2026  Hits: 22

Applications are invited from suitably qualified and experienced Senior Academic Staff Members of the University of Ruhuna holding the posts of Senior Professor, Professor, Associate Professor, Senior Lecturer Grade I and Senior Lecturer Grade II with appropriate academic and professional experience relevant to the Knowledge and Technology Transfer for the Post of Director (part time) of the Knowledge and Technology Transfer Office (KTTO), formerly known as the University Business Linkage (UBL) Cell/Technology Transfer Office (TTO).

The KTTO functions as a focal point for facilitating the transfer of knowledge, research outcomes and technologies developed within the University to industry 2 | Page and society, with the aim of promoting innovations, inventions, research commercialization and sustainable economic and social development.

The Director is responsible for providing strategic leadership and coordinating the activities of the KTTO as described in the UGC Circular No.10/2016. (Please refer the Circular and Guidelines through UGC Website for further information). The Director of Knowledge and Technology Transfer Office (KTTO) is appointed for a three years term.

Interested applicants are requested to submit a self-prepared application, together with an updated Curriculum Vitae highlighting relevant academic qualifications, professional experience, research and innovation and inventions activities, industry collaborations and other relevant achievements, to the Vice-Chancellor, University of Ruhuna, through the proper channel, on or before 26.10.2026